

Otto Bock HealthCare Names New Chief Financial Officer for North American Region

Minneapolis, MN – Andreas Schultz, Executive M.B.A., joins Otto Bock HealthCare this month as Chief Financial Officer for the North American Region. His role as CFO will include responsibility for Finance, IT and logistics for Otto Bock businesses in the U.S. and Canada.

Most recently Andreas worked as a financial consultant for Zurich International Consulting Group. Prior to that, he worked for Dow Chemical in Texas, Michigan, and throughout Europe, and his professional career includes a wide variety of finance positions that incorporated global and business development responsibilities. In addition to an E.M.B.A. from the University of Chicago, Andreas holds a degree in business and mechanical engineering.

“Andreas brings an international background well suited to the position,” says Bert Harman, Regional CEO, Otto Bock North America. “We expect his expertise will continue to drive our growth and our investment in bringing exciting new technology to the market.”

Minnesota-based Otto Bock HealthCare LP was established in 1958 as the Americas corporate headquarters of Otto Bock HealthCare, GmbH, based in Duderstadt, Germany. Otto Bock has more than 4,000 employees worldwide and produces over 40,000 types of prosthetic and orthotic components, mobility and rehabilitation products, and is the U.S. leader in delivering continuous passive motion (CPM) services and related therapies. (www.ottobockus.com)

###